Chapter 1 by dantedante

"Welcome everyone! Please take a seat." The general waited until all of us were seated. "I hope you know why we are here because I won't be going over it." We all looked at each other, hearts racing. "Let's just get this over with," the general said with dissatisfaction. "Please get up and line up alphabetically starting with the first letter of your last name. Remember you will be serving our country and will be remembered not only as people, but as warriors!"
